11 July 2014

~ After a nervy start in their continued County Triples Semi Final, Donna Taylor, Jan Allen and Karen Cranham went onto win and qualify for the National Championships at Leamington next month. This afternoon they played the final against Cowplain and went well ahead before having to play an extra end which they won so Cove has its first County Champions of the season. Well done Donna, Jan and Karen!

~ We also have another chance of a Ladies' County Champion Rink in Allyson Flint, Sue Sharp, Jan Allen and Sarah Bowen but their final has been delayed, probably until after the National Championships have been completed

~ A more comfortable win this evening in the County Club Championship away at Whitchurch by 98 shots to 50 to set up a next round at home to either Basingstoke Town with the match scheduled for Monday 21 July

~ A pleasant afternoon's bowling at Hawley in the Stan Hardman League. The sun shone and the pace of the green was good although some found the lines a challenge. Cove won on two of the three triples and the match with an overall score of 68 shots against 52. The third rink looked good for a win also until the 'Captain of the day' gave the opposition a five and a couple of threes - Ooops! (Mike French)

~ Following the World Cup semi finals our Club draw will see Bill Dickie (Germany) v Ken Eichen (Argentina). The losing semi finalists of Marc Goldup and John Guerin each win £15
