~ The updated Aldershot and District League Tables, after the week 2 results, show the A Team remaining bottom of the Premier Division. The B Team are 6th in Division 1 but the best performance sees the C Team in second place in Division 3. Next week we are very short of available players and in danger of the C team having to either play short or even concede the match. That would be a big disappointment so if anyone can now play and help us, please let Harrison know

17 May 2022

~ Another set of mixed results in the Men's Aldershot and District League programme this evening as the A Team were beaten on all rinks in a 41 shots to 55 defeat away at Camberley in the Premier League.
