~ The Rink sheets are now in the clubhouse along with the selection sheets for all the opening matches. The smaller Fixture Cards will be distributed shortly but all fixtures and leagues have also been updated on the club website

Please remember that rinks can only be booked for confirmed competitions once a date has been accepted. Rinks should not be booked for rollups, Any subsequently cancelled matches should be removed from the rinks sheets immediately please to free up the space

The nomination sheets for the various league teams are also on the notice boards so please let us know availability by ticking the dates you can play

Lastly please remember that EVERY member is expected to complete a cleaning rota once throughout the season so a list is also on the main noticeboard for you to select the date that suits you - it should not be left to the same few to help so please can everyone do their part in helping
